A photograph of a bedroom interior. On the left, a bed with white linens is partially visible. A bedside lamp with a white globe and a brass-colored base is lit, casting a warm glow. On the wall above the bed is a small framed picture. In the center, a window with a wooden frame and white panes is open. A vase with blue and white checkered patterns sits on the windowsill, containing a bouquet of purple and white flowers. To the right, a modern light fixture with several white globe lights is mounted on the wall. The overall atmosphere is cozy and inviting.
